

Do not put control on XM's ability to give us a service that we PAY for. Screw the large radio and television owners. If they provide a service that I use, then I'd frequent that. I enjoy my XM and will continue. It is crap like this that makes big business and goverment look like children. Let us decide what we want and PAY for.